ORDERING COPIES OF THE ROMAN MISSAL AND OTHER AIDS

Now is the time to order sufficient copies of the third edition of the *Roman Missal for your parish or institution. Under the menu tab, Roman Missal-Third Edition, in the section Roman Missal on the website of the Office for Divine Worship you will find the list of all available publishers for the third edition of the Roman Missal, along with prices and descriptions. The Archdiocese of Philadelphia does not have a preference for any one publisher.

Some parishes are preparing their own pew aids for the faithful. Additionally, under the menu tab, Resources/Parish Resources, in the section Roman Missal on the website of the Office for Divine Worship, you will find a list of available pew cards for the faithful, along with prices and descriptions. The Archdiocese does not have a preference for any one type.

WHAT TO DO WITH OLD COPIES OF THE SACRAMENTARIES?

Old copies of the Sacramentary should be properly discarded. They should not be discarded in the rubbish. Rather, copies should be burned or buried. Perhaps the local Funeral Director could bury the books with those who will be interred shortly after the First Sunday of Advent.

PARISH-WIDE INSTRUCTION ON THE ROMAN MISSAL
AVAILABLE TO THE ARCHDIOCESE THROUGH ASCENSION PRESS

The Office for Divine Worship, in conjunction with Ascension Press, is offering two excellent programs. This information has already been sent to the pastors of each parish. The first program provides an information session on the new translation of the Roman Missal and is intended for the fall. The second program provides a five week series on the Mass itself and is intended for Lent 2012. For additional information on these programs, please contact the Office for Divine Worship.

Prepare, Practice and Pray

Also, under the menu tab, Parish-Based Catechesis, in the section Roman Missal on the website of the Office for Divine Worship, you will find, Six Adult Sessions for Fall 2011, provided by the Diocese of Harrisburg.

WORKSHOPS ON THE ROMAN MISSAL

Several regional workshops are scheduled throughout the fall for priests, deacons, religious and the faithful. If parishes are conducting workshops on the Roman Missal apart from those listed below, the Office for Divine Worship is happy to promote them on its website and with its electronic mailing.

Additional workshops will be announced at a later date.

LITURGICAL MUSIC

The Office for Liturgical Music of the Archdiocese of Philadelphia, after a period of broad consultation with liturgical musicians throughout the Archdiocese, has determined a recommended list of sung ordinaries of the Mass. A pew card with the recommended sung parts of the Mass, specially prepared for the Archdiocese of Philadelphia, is available from the Print Shop in the Archdiocesan Office Center, at psp@adphilad.org, for a minimal charge after September 12, 2011.

In June 2011 at the USCCB Meeting, the Bishops of the United States gave permission for a gradual introduction of the sung Gloria, Holy, and Mystery of Faith, in anticipation of the first Sunday of Advent. Cardinal Rigali has authorized the singing of the new translation for the Archdiocese of Philadelphia for these parts of the Mass beginning in September.

Catechesis # 1	The Lord be with you...and with your spirit.
Catechesis # 2	I confess and Glory to God
Catechesis # 3	I believe and consubstantial with the Father
Catechesis # 4	Preface Dialogue, It is right and just and Holy, holy, holy, Lord God of hosts
Catechesis # 5	Eucharistic Prayer, For you and for many
Catechesis # 6	Communion Rite, Behold the Lamb of God and Lord, I am not worthy

Prepare, Practice and Pray

Under the menu tab, Parish-Based Catechesis, there are Homily Helps for the Sundays from September 18 through Christmas to assist the priest or deacon make reference to the use of the third edition of the Roman Missal. These helps draw from the provided Lectionary texts to raise points about the Sacred Liturgy and its celebration.

PRACTICING WITH THE REVISED TRANSLATION FOR PRIESTS, DEACONS AND THE FAITHFUL, INCLUDING SCHOOL AGE CHILDREN

The Order of Mass is available on the website of the Office for Divine Worship for all to begin reading, practicing and praying the revised translation. A practice schedule is proposed for the congregation prior to Mass and as part of religious education and school programs.

The week of Sunday, September 4:	I confess (Confiteor)
The week of Sunday, September 11:	Glory to God (Gloria)
The week of Sunday September 18:	Glory to God (Gloria)
The week of Sunday September 25:	Profession of Faith (Credo)
The week of Sunday, October 2:	Profession of Faith (Credo)
The week of Sunday, October 9:	Profession of Faith (Credo)
The week of Sunday, October 16:	Pray, Brethren
The week of Sunday, October 23:	Holy, Holy, Holy
The week of Sunday, October 30:	Mystery of Faith
The week of Sunday, November 6:	Invitation and Response to Holy Communion
The week of Sunday, November 13:	The Dialogue Response: And with your spirit.

The Office for Divine Worship has produced, with the help of our own Diocesan Priests, a thirty-five minute DVD of the Order of Mass, available as another aid to practicing and praying the revised translation. These DVD's can be used for a variety of catechetical and formational settings. To order, at the cost of ten dollars, contact the Office for Divine Worship after September 12, 2011.

OTHER RESOURCES

The website of the Office for Divine Worship contains a large number and great variety of resources on the Roman Missal. The year-long series, Know the Words, Know the Meaning, Know the Mystery, continues to be a resource that can be used through Advent 2011 and even afterwards.

PRACTICAL SUGGESTIONS

Below are some practical suggestions for priest celebrants during the fall to prepare themselves and the faithful for the third edition of the Roman Missal:

- Discontinue singing and reciting Christ has died since this response to the Mystery of Faith will no longer be part of the Order of Mass with the third edition of the Roman Missal.
- Make use of the given introductions to the Penitential Act and the Lord's Prayer as a way of getting into the habit of using only what is in the Order of Mass, since the third edition of the Roman Missal only provides a single introduction text for each.
- Plan now on the use of a commentator for the Sundays of Advent to alert the faithful to page numbers or pew cards to assist them in praying with the new texts.
